Wynn Resorts Named Casino Operator of the Year for the Americas in the 2016 International Gaming Awards

February 16, 2016

Company is the only Las Vegas Casino Operator Recognized in this Year's Awards

LAS VEGAS, Feb. 16, 2016 /PRNewswire/ -- Wynn Resorts was recognized today as Casino Operator of the Year for the Americas by the 9th International Gaming Awards for 2016. Each year, these awards provide a benchmark for technology companies, resort operators and iGaming operators at a global level.

The award for Casino Operator of the Year recognizes an operator that has consistently and decisively dominated the casino sector during the year. Judges look for operators that have vision, originality and vitality in the crowded marketplace to set them apart from others. Brand identity, marketing, customer service, innovation and use of new technologies are all taken into account.

The International Gaming Awards recognize different categories to reflect changes in markets and technologies, but retain their focus on recognizing excellence across the gaming industry and focus on social responsibility. They are supported and enhanced by well renowned industry insiders as well as gaming clients from all tiers of the gaming world. Through careful listening to the views of gaming clients and industry professionals, the biggest and best are recognized and celebrated every year.
