STEVE WYNN'S NEWEST RESORT, WYNN LAS VEGAS, NOW TAKING ROOM RESERVATIONS

Las Vegas, NV - January 14, 2005 - Wynn Las Vegas, the new $2.7 billion resort from developer Steve Wynn, is now taking guest reservations. The resort opens on the Las Vegas Strip April 28th and is one of the world's most highly anticipated destination resort openings this year. Wynn Las Vegas is located across from the Fashion Show mall and adjacent to the Sands Expo. Due to the strong response, it is advisable that guests with preferred dates and room styles reserve now by calling 702-770-7100 or Toll Free 866-770-7108.

Each of the 2,700 guest rooms and suites in the elegant 50 story, bronze tower is artistically-designed with floor to ceiling windows framing views of the Las Vegas Strip, the property's private mountain and lake, or the golf course. Even standard rooms are equipped with plush comforts such as large, elegant bathrooms, European linens and bedding, and flat screen televisions in both the living and bathroom areas. Many suites include private massage rooms.

The 217-acre resort will open complete with 18 dining outlets, an 18-hole championship golf course, an 111,000 square foot casino, a spa and salon, a gallery of masterworks from the private art collection of Steve and Elaine Wynn, an impressive array of retail boutiques, and a signature show by Franco Dragone.
