"In the 45 years that I have been in business in Las Vegas, Pat Mulroy has been one of the most impressive public servants, running a large organization and dealing with complex issues. Her career managing both the Las Vegas and Southern Nevada Water Authorities was marked by a singular professional sensitivity to the sometimes competing needs of the community and the environment. My opinion is obviously shared at all levels of this state and its government, as evidenced by her appointment to the Nevada Gaming Commission by Governor Sandoval in 2014. Pat Mulroy's willingness to join our board and apply her independent judgment on all matters is a marvelous and positive development at Wynn Resorts," commented Stephen A. Wynn, Chairman and CEO.

With respect to Ambassador Randt's appointment, Mr. Wynn noted, "Considering our overwhelming commitment to the People's Republic of China and the Special Administrative Region of Macau, we are very fortunate to have Ambassador Randt joining our board. Ambassador Randt's relationship with the central government of Beijing gives him a unique perspective on that government's most fundamental issues and concerns. His appointment to manage our embassy in Beijing capped a stunning career that began as one of the leading attorneys of an American law firm in Hong Kong. Ambassador Randt speaks the language and understands the people; this sensitivity will inure to the benefit of Wynn Resorts and all of its shareholders."
